St Mary's Priory & Christchurch and Holy Trinity, Abergavenny, St Peter's, Llanwenarth Citra June 7 - Trinity Sunday

This Sunday is Trinity Sunday, an opportunity for us to marvel at the divine mystery that is the inner life of God, the relationship between the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

It is a wonderful mystery that is not set to exclude us. Indeed, if anything the incarnation and God's life in Jesus is an extended hand to draw us in.

The Trinity are three distinct persons, but are also inseparable and indivisible, and this mystery can help us to understand how we should live our lives, not only in relation to one another but in relationship with God.

On this Trinity Sunday we come before you Lord to offer our praise and adoration.

You are God the creator, giving us richly all things to enjoy.

You are Christ the Saviour of the world, made flesh to set us free.

You are the Spirit of truth and love, willing to dwell in us.

You are holy and blessed. One god, eternal Trinity, be near to us the people formed in your image, and close to the world your love brings to life.

Amen.

THE COLLECT

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ, your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

A Reading from the prophet Isaiah
Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand and marked off the heavens with a span, enclosed the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance?
Who has directed the spirit of the Lord, or as his counsellor has instructed him? Whom did he consult for his enlightenment, and who taught him the path of justice? Who taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding?
Even the nations are like a drop from a bucket, and are accounted as dust on the scales; see, he takes up the isles like fine dust. Lebanon would not provide fuel enough, nor are its animals enough for a burnt-offering. All the nations are as nothing before him; they are accounted by him as less than nothing and emptiness.
Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, 'My way is hidden from the Lord, and my right is disregarded by my God'?
Have you not known?
Have you not heard?
The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless.
Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted; but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

A Reading from the second letter of Paul to the Corinthians.
Brothers and sisters, put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you.
Greet one another with a holy kiss.
All the saints greet you.
The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalms 8

O Lord our Governor, * how excellent is thy name in / all the / world:
thou that hast set thy / glory · a- / bove the / heavens.
Out of the mouths of very babes and sucklings hast thou rebuked the strong * because they / are thine / enemies:
that thou mightest still the / enem · y / and · the a- / venger.

When I consider thy heavens, * even the / works of · thy / fingers:

the moon and the stars / which thou / hast or- / dained./

What is man that thou art / mindful · of / him: or the son of man / that thou / visit · est / him?

Thou madest him little lower / than the / angels: and hast / crowned · him with / glory · and / honour.

Thou madest him to have dominion over the / works of · thy / hands:
and thou hast put all things in sub- / jection / under · his / feet;

All / sheep and / oxen:
yea and / all the / beasts · of the / field,

The birds of the air and the / fishes · of the / sea: and whatsoever walketh / through the / paths · of the / sea.

O / Lord our / Governor:
how excellent is thy / name in / all the / world.

THE GOSPEL

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.
Glory to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
one God, who was and who is, and who is to come: the Almighty.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

The Lord be with you
And with your spirit.
Hear the Holy Gospel according to St Matthew:
Glory to Christ our Saviour

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted.
And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord:
Praise to Christ our Lord.
